

PRESS RELEASE

The Mayfield United Methodist Church Choir

For anyone who has more of a love for heavenly singing than for horse racing the place to be is St. Nicholas' Collegiate Church on Friday 29th of July at 8.00 pm when the Mayfield United Methodist Church Choir will give Galwegians a real treat. The choir which hails from Mayfield Heights Ohio, has already had three other European tours this year and this is their first time to perform in Ireland.

Under the direction of Craig Mc Gaughey, the choir has developed a varied repertoire mixing classical works with american spirituals, gospel and contemporary literature.

Their Galway concert will include such works as Gloria in Excelsis (from the 12th mass) by Mozart; O Lux Beatissima by H.Helvey; Immortal Love Forever Full by D. Schwoebel; Steal Away and Deep River arranged by John Rutter and How Can I Keep From Singing arrangement by B. Ellingboe.

So why not take a break from this busy race week and come along to hear the Mayfield Choir. The concert is free of charge but donations will be graciously accepted and all proceeds go to AIDS WEST.

AIDS West is a voluntary organisation based in Galway and provides the highest quality support and counselling service to those affected by HIV/AIDS in Galway, Mayo and Roscommon.

The Helpline number is 091-562213

For further information contact

Geraldine Mills, AIDS WEST, Ozanam House, St. Augustine Street. Galway.
Office 091-566266

