

PRESS RELEASE

US Choir sings to benefit AIDS West

In association with the Galway Early Music festival, the University of Southern Indiana Chamber Choir will perform a benefit concert in aid of AIDS West on Sunday May 18th in the Augustinian Church, Galway at 8.00pm. Established in 1996 as part of the continual growth of music at the University, the choir has toured the Tri-State area of America, Europe and is no stranger to Ireland having given memorable concerts here in the past. Under the direction of Daniel Craig the choir will sing sacred and secular pieces. They will also be performing with the Rowan Tree Irish Traditional Group who will perform early sacred music and Irish traditional music for choir and instruments.

The only HIV organisation in the west of Ireland, AIDS West delivers the highest quality care and support to people living with HIV, AIDS and sexually transmitted infections (STIs) in Galway, Mayo and Roscommon. Anyone worried about his or her sexual health can contact the helpline number at 091-562213 or email info@aidswest.ie

The office is situated at Ozanam House, St. Augustine St. Galway. Office hours are 9.00am to 16.45pm.
