World AIDS Day Concert 1st December

How lovely to return to St Nicholas' Church for our best attended World AIDS Day concert yet! The church was full of people, and thanks to the people in this group who attended also and travelled long distances at this cold but magical time of the year.

All of us here at Sexual Health West wish you a warm and wonderful holiday celebration and happiest of New Years

The 4th Positive Now National Conference: The Pillars of Wellbeing

This private conference for people living with HIV is hosted by Positive Now in conjunction with HIV Ireland in The Royal Marine Hotel, Dun Laoghaire on Saturday the 21st of January 2023.

New Support Service Coordinator for 2023

I'm sorry to share with you that I am leaving Sexual Health West in early January. Letting you know by email isn't ideal - but this way everyone knows at the same time!

Many of you know my Dad passed away a few months ago and due to family needs it is time to return to New Zealand for a few years to support family there.

After Thursday the 12th of January please contact Joe McDonagh on 086 405 0417 or Joemcd@sexualhealthwest.ie

If you do not want your details passed on to the new Support Service Coordinator please let Joe know before the start of February.

It has been lovely working with you all and getting to know you. You are a generous and kind group of people who have been very welcoming to me as we muddled through a very strange few years together.

Wishing you all the best for 2023 and many happy healthy years more.
